

Sequence It!

DIRECTIONS

After reading a story together, discuss the main events of the story with your child. Next, have him/her draw one major event on each box below. Cut out the boxes so that you have story cards. Now, practice putting them in order and re-telling the story together.

For an extra challenge, put the story cards in different orders and create your own fun version of the story!
